

YAMS

Yorkshire Agricultural Machinery Show

BREXIT – WHAT BREXIT?

Where are we going and what do we do?

An excellent high profile seminar programme
WEDNESDAY 6TH FEBRUARY 2019

To be held in the Ebor Ring next to the main Market Hall and café

11.00 Agricultural policies for the next decade

Addressing the question “Where are we going and what do we do?”

Jeremy Moody, Secretary and advisor to the CAAV

12.00 Agri-business – the long view

The impact of these new agricultural policies on farming businesses. Plus grant funding benefits and pitfalls

Davina Fillingham, Partner at Stephenson & Son

13.30 The banker’s view

Business planning, financing and structure

Geoff Hall, Area Director for Lloyds Bank Agriculture

14.00 Preparing for the changing market-place

Current outlook and potential impacts as well as options for managing the changes.

Luke Crossman, Market Intelligence at AHDB

T 01904 489731

E enquiries@yams.uk.com

YAMS

Yorkshire Agricultural Machinery Show

SPEAKERS

JEREMY MOODY

Secretary and advisor to the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers since 1995. He has written and spoken widely on agricultural policy, tenancy law, valuation, taxation and other issues with a range of technical texts and articles. He deals with governments in London, Edinburgh, Cardiff, Belfast and Brussels and other bodies on policy and practical matters - now including BREXIT and the post-BREXIT policies.

Since the 1980s he has been acting in rural tenancies practice and legislative reform, the development of the Common Agricultural Policy, aspects of rural property and business taxation and, more recently, renewable energy and the legal regime for electronic communications apparatus on property.

LUKE CROSSMAN

Joined the Agric and Horticulture Development Board in 2012, starting off as a junior analyst in dairy and red meat after graduating from Harper Adams. During his time at AHDB he moved on to become analyst and senior analyst, focussing on dairy before moving to senior analyst in the Policy team in September 2018.

DAVINA FILLINGHAM MRICS FAAV NSCH

Partner in Stephenson & Son based at the York Auction Centre and alongside her role as a Chartered Rural Surveyor and Agribusiness Advisor has a keen interest in Precision Agriculture and Agricultural Technology, having completed a Nuffield Farming Scholarship in 2013. Davina is also a FACTS qualified advisor.

GEOFF HALL

Area Director for Lloyds Bank Agriculture for the north of England with over 30 years experience in Agricultural Finance across a diverse range of businesses. Covering an area from the Humber across to Cheshire and up to the Scottish Borders with responsibility for a team of 10 specialist managers in the area.

Lloyds Banking Group is one of the largest providers of finance to the agricultural sector with a strong presence across the UK.

York Auction Centre, Murton, York, YO19 5FG